New England Climate Colloquium:
Climate Change & the Urban Environment

September 21 - 3:30 pm
Herman Karl, USGS (retired)
“Making room for nature: What does it mean?”

October 5 - 3:30 pm
Cynthia Rosenzweig, NASA GISS/Columbia
"Cities as First Responders: Case studies from the First UCCRN Assessment Report on Climate Change and Cities (ARC3)"

October 19 - 3:30 pm
Tim Roughan, Director of Distributed Resources, National Grid
"Renewables, distributed generation, and emerging technologies: A discussion on energy & climate with National Grid"

November 1 - 4:00 pm
Stephen Hammer, MIT
"Linking Climate Change and Jobs: The Challenge of Green Growth at the Urban Scale"
(co-sponsored by the STEM Education Institute)

November 2 - 3:30 pm
Elaine Kamarck, Harvard University
“Effective legislation for climate change: U.S. Climate Policy and strategies for pricing carbon”

November 30 - 3:30 pm
Casey Brown, UMass Amherst
"Robust methods for assessing and managing climate change risks to the Great Lakes"

All are welcome.
For participation via webinar, go to: http://www.cns.umass.edu/neclimate/webinar, or contact: aholland@geo.umass.edu